The Trumbull Board of Education will continue to take Affirmative Action to ensure that no persons are discriminated against in its employment.

CORE VALUES AND BELIEFS

The Trumbull school community, which engages in an environment conducive to learning, believes that all students will read and write effectively, therefore communicating in an articulate and coherent manner. All students will participate in activities that address problem-solving through critical thinking. Students will use technology as a tool in decision-making. We believe that by fostering self-confidence, self-directed and student-centered activities, we will encourage independent thinking and learning. We believe ethical conduct to be paramount in sustaining our welcoming school climate.

We believe:

- Music is an inextricable part of the human experience, and every individual is inherently musical.
- Every student should be assured a high-quality course of music instruction, taught by qualified music educators.
- Music is a pillar of cultural heritage and a means for interdisciplinary learning.
- Music is an essential, core subject, and providing a musical education is a necessary part of educating the whole child. Therefore, every student should be offered opportunities to perform, create, respond, and connect musically.
- Learning music gives students a mode of artistic expression, a sense of music appreciation, and the tools needed for becoming lifelong musical learners.
- All individuals should have the high-quality resources and facilities necessary to achieve success within a challenging curriculum.

INTRODUCTION

Honors Chamber Singers is an elective course offered by the Trumbull Public Schools music department. This course is designed for the advanced vocal student who wants to refine his or her individual and ensemble skills and musical expression, practice the skills which lead to music literacy, understand theoretical and historical principles leading to a greater understanding of a variety of repertoire, and explore the components of professional performance practice.

In accordance with National and State Standards, choral music students will be given the opportunity to learn to analyze and think critically, think and express creatively, communicate and collaborate artistically, and explore and share global connections.

PHILOSOPHY

Music is part of the human experience. We believe that every child is inherently musical, that music is an essential core subject, and that providing a musical education is a necessary part of educating the whole child. Accordingly, every child should be offered opportunities to perform, create and respond musically. Learning music gives students a mode of artistic expression and provides tools needed for becoming lifelong musical learners.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course Name

Honors Chamber Singers

Prerequisites

Elective course – open to any tenth-, eleventh-, or twelfth-grade student. Audition is required. Other requirements include participation in Vocal Ensembles class and audition for the Western Region Music Festival.

Course Credit

One credit in Music

One class period daily for a full year

Level Honors

General Description of the Course

This course is designed for a mixed-voice group of tenth-, eleventh-, or twelfth-grade students interested in singing in an advanced choral group. This course involves the application of good vocal training through the study and performance of choral literature from all periods of music history. Both accompanied and unaccompanied music will be performed, and some of the repertoire will be in a foreign language. The Chamber Singers will perform at all school concerts and at several school and community events throughout the year. This choir is for students in grades 10-12 by audition. There should be a desire to learn advanced music reading and vocal technique skills. Areas of study will be music reading, voice production, and musical interpretation.

Major Projects

Students will perform at all school concerts and at several school and community events.

Assessments

There will be a major assessment at the end of the year along with periodic written and performance-based assessments.

GOALS

Students will:

- Refine their singing voice using proper posture, breathing technique, and placement.
- Further develop the skills necessary to produce a blended and balanced sound with good intonation.
- Further develop their ability to sight-read advanced musical notation.
- Further develop an understanding of the historical and theoretical principles necessary to produce an informed and musical performance.
- Continue to work towards proper concert demeanor and professional performance practice.
- Come to appreciate how the study of music can enhance their lives and is an essential component of a complete and comprehensive education.

Within each unit, students who possess a higher level of ability due to higher grade level or experience will be able to expand on unit goals by:

- Assuming a leadership position in Concert Choir as an official Group Leader
- Becoming a Sectional Rehearsal Assistant
- Performing a solo section of the choral repertoire with the group
- Having opportunities to perform higher level music as a member of a group or individually
- Having additional performance opportunities, either in school or in community
- Preparing solo repertoire for Western Region/All-State auditions
- Upon acceptance, preparing choral music repertoire for Western Region Chorus or All-State Chorus
- Having the opportunity to apply for acceptance into the Tri-M Music Honor Society

MUSIC STANDARDS

The Performance Standards align with the 2014 National Core Arts Standards for Music.

I. CREATING

- Imagine: The creative ideas, concepts, and feelings that influence musicians' work emerge from a variety of sources.
- Plan and Make: Musicians' creative choices are influenced by their expertise, context, and expressive intent.
- Evaluate and Refine: Musicians evaluate and refine their work through openness to new ideas, persistence, and the application of appropriate criteria.
- Present: Musicians' presentation of creative work is the culmination of a process of creation and communication.

II. PERFORMING

- Select: Performers' interest in and knowledge of musical works, understanding of their own technical skill, and the context for a performance influence the selection of repertoire.
- Analyze: Analyzing creators' context and how they manipulate elements of music provides insight into their intent and informs performance.
- Interpret: Performers make interpretive decisions based on their understanding of context and expressive intent.
- Rehearse, Evaluate, and Refine: To express their musical ideas, musicians analyze, evaluate, and refine their performance over time through openness to new ideas, persistence, and the application of appropriate criteria.
- Present: Musicians judge performance based on criteria that vary across time, place, and cultures. The context and how a work is presented influence the audience response.

III. RESPONDING

- Select: Individuals' selection of musical works is influenced by their interests, experiences, understandings, and purposes.
- Analyze: Response to music is informed by analyzing context (social, cultural, and historical) and how creators and performers manipulate the elements of music.
- Interpret: Through their use of elements and structures of music, creators and performers provide clues to their expressive intent.
- Evaluate: The personal evaluation of musical works and performances is informed by analysis, interpretation, and established criteria.

IV. CONNECTING

- Musicians connect their personal interests, experiences, ideas, and knowledge to creating, performing, and responding.
- Understanding connections to varied contexts and daily life enhances musicians' creating, performing, and responding.

Unit 1

Proficiency in Advanced Performance

At the completion of this unit, students will:

- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate proper posture, seated and standing
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate an understanding of breathing techniques
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate competence with proper voice placement using a lifted and activated face
- MU:Re7.2.E.Ia Demonstrate awareness of proper intonation as an individual
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa performer and as a member of an ensemble
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate proper diction in English and Roman Liturgical Latin
- MU:Pr5.3.E.IIa Demonstrate competence with choral balance and blend between and among individuals and voice parts
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate sight reading of pitch using Curwen Hand Signs
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate sight reading of rhythm using rhythm syllables and clapping
- MU:Pr5.3.E.IIa Demonstrate proficiency in the technical demands and an
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa understanding of the expressive qualities of the Western Region Audition repertoire
- MU:Re7.2.E.Ia Demonstrate proficiency performing choral music of various musical
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa styles and appropriate to the grade level and group competency, with a goal of performing level 4-6 repertoire

Essential Questions

- How do I transfer the skills I have accumulated into my performance of the repertoire?
- How do I interact with the group to achieve a unified sound?

Focus Questions

- What areas in my posture and technique need further refinement so I can be a better singer?
- How can I refine my tone quality?
- What exercises can I do to further improve my breathing?
- Why is it important to become a more literate musician?
- What should I listen for when I am singing with others?

Scope and Sequence

- Proper posture, seated and standing
- Tone quality study
- Proper breathing and voice placement
- Proper diction
- More advanced sight reading
- Rehearse repertoire

Instructional / Teaching Strategies

- Teacher demonstrates and students practice/review proper posture seated and standing
- Students practice/review exercises for proper breathing and voice placement
- Teacher models and students practice/review proper diction
- Students practice skills leading to good intonation
- Students begin/review more advanced sight reading of pitch using Curwen Hand Signs
- Students begin/review more advanced sight reading of rhythm using rhythm syllables and clapping
- Students rehearse choral and Western Region repertoire of various musical styles and appropriate to the grade level and group competency using the skills introduced in class

Evaluation / Assessment Methods

- On a regular basis, the teacher will give immediate verbal feedback to students regarding the skills introduced, the accuracy of notes, rhythms, dynamics, diction, etc.
- Students will be assessed periodically on an individual basis on the skills, competencies and concepts introduced in class
- Students will be asked to evaluate their own performances through in class discussions as well as written reflections

Time Allotment

- Approximately 12 weeks.

(Please note that a number of the concepts such as proper posture, breathing, intonation, placement, diction, etc. introduced in Unit 1 will be reinforced and refined throughout the remainder of the year and are points of study and refinement throughout the careers of professional musicians.)

Unit 2

Refinement and Extension of Proficiency

At the completion of this unit, students will:

- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Review score study including the navigation of the closed and open choral score, musical terms, and musical symbols
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate a high level of competence with proper mouth position necessary for a blended sound
- MU:Re7.2.E.IIa Demonstrate a high level of competency with proper intonation as an individual performer and as a member of an ensemble
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa MU:Re8.1.E.IIa Sing choral music repertoire demonstrating a strong understanding of phrasing and expression
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate mastery of proper concert demeanor
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate a high level of competence in sight-reading pitch using Curwen Hand Signs
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate a high level of competence with sight-reading rhythm using rhythm syllables and clapping
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate mastery of identifying major key signatures

Essential Questions

- How do we discern musical creators' expressive intent?
- How can my performance achieve a connection with an audience?

Focus Questions

- How does the position of my mouth affect my individual sound as well as the overall sound of the group?
- What do I need to do to have good intonation?
- What do I need to do to sing expressively?
- What information do I need in order to respond as the composer intended?

Scope and Sequence

- Mouth position and vowel modification
- Individual and group intonation
- Phrasing and expression
- Proper Concert Demeanor
- Key Signatures as they relate to sight reading
- Signs and Symbols
- Rehearse repertoire

Instructional / Teaching Strategies

- Teacher models and students refine their mouth positions for all vowels
- Students practice/review exercises for proper voice placement, support, and mouth position for intonation

- Teacher models and students practice/review expressive singing and good phrasing
- Students interpret the signs and symbols in the musical score in order to discern the composer's intent
- Through discussion and observation of professional groups, students practice refined choral balance and blend as well as proper concert demeanor
- Students practice/review Key Signature identification needed for sight reading
- Students rehearse choral and Western Region repertoire of various musical styles and appropriate to the grade level and group competency using the skills introduced in class

Evaluation / Assessment Methods

- On a regular basis, the teacher will give immediate verbal feedback to students regarding the skills introduced, the accuracy of notes, rhythms, dynamics, diction, etc.
- Students will be assessed periodically on an individual basis on the skills, competencies and concepts introduced in class
- Students will be asked to evaluate their own performances through in class discussions as well as written reflections.

Time Allotment

- Approximately 12 weeks

(Please note that the concepts introduced in Unit 1 and 2 will be reinforced and refined during Unit 3.)

Unit 3

Achievement of Greater Technical Competency

At the completion of this unit, students will:

- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate a mastery performing both a cappella and accompanied choral music
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa Demonstrate a high level of proficiency with proper diction in English, Roman Liturgical Latin and additional foreign languages
- MU:Pr4.2.E.IIa Demonstrate how understanding the style, genre, and context of varied repertoire influences performances
- MU:Cr1.1.E.8a Compose and improvise ideas for melodies and rhythmic passages based on characteristic(s) of music or text(s) studied in rehearsal.
- MU:Re9.1.E.IIa Students assess their individual and group performances demonstrating an understanding of the concepts, skills, and terminology studied in Units 1-3
- MU:Pr5.3.E.IIa Demonstrate an ability to troubleshoot their individual performances and the performance of the ensemble using the skills they learned throughout the year
- MU:Re7.2.E.IIa Demonstrate a mastery performing choral music in various musical styles and appropriate to the grade level and group competency, with a goal of performing level 4-6 repertoire
- MU:Pr6.1.E.IIa

Essential Questions

- When is a performance judged ready to present?
- How does understanding the structure and context of musical works inform performance?

Focus Questions

- What are the rules for proper pronunciation of Roman Liturgical Latin as well as the additional foreign languages encountered in the repertoire?
- What phrasing and expressive changes should I make for the performance of repertoire of a variety of styles and genres?
- How will I select and develop draft melodies and rhythmic passages for my composition?
- How will I evaluate my individual performance as a member of Chamber Singers and of the group as a whole?
- Based on my evaluation, how will I refine my performance as a member of Chamber Singers and of the group as a whole?

Scope and Sequence

- Basic rules for proper pronunciation of Roman Liturgical Latin and additional foreign languages
- Phrasing and expressive variations for music of different styles and genres
- Composition and improvisation strategies
- Self-assessment and group performance evaluation

- Students troubleshoot challenges uncovered in evaluation
- Rehearse repertoire

Instructional / Teaching Strategies

- Teacher models and students practice proper diction for Roman Liturgical Latin as well as additional foreign languages encountered in the repertoire
- Students listen to examples of phrasing and expressive variations in music of varying styles and genres and incorporate these changes into their performance of the repertoire
- Students compose and improvise ideas for melodies and rhythmic passages based on characteristic(s) of music or text(s) studied in rehearsal
- Students evaluate their own performance and that of the group as a whole
- Using the skills and understandings learned in Units 1 and 2, students troubleshoot the problem spots uncovered in the evaluation
- Students rehearse repertoire of various musical styles and appropriate to the grade level and group competency using the skills introduced in class

Evaluation / Assessment Methods

- On a regular basis, the teacher will give immediate verbal feedback to students regarding the skills introduced, the accuracy of notes, rhythms, dynamics, diction, etc.
- Students will be assessed periodically on an individual basis on the skills, competencies, and concepts introduced in class
- Students will be asked to evaluate their own performances through in class discussions as well as written reflections

Time Allotments

- Approximately 12 weeks

Technology Competency Standards

1. Creativity and Innovation - Students demonstrate creative thinking, construct knowledge, and develop innovative products and processes using technology.
2. Communication and Collaboration - Students use digital media and environments to communicate and work collaboratively, including at a distance, to support individual learning and contribute to the learning of others.
3. Research and Information Fluency - Students apply digital tools to gather, evaluate, and use information.
4. Critical Thinking, Problem Solving, and Decision Making - Students use critical thinking skills to plan and conduct research, manage projects, solve problems, and make informed decisions using appropriate digital tools and resources.
5. Digital Citizenship - Students understand human, cultural, and societal issues related to technology and practice legal and ethical behavior.
